

DOUBLE HORSE GROUP

Double Horse Group, in Kerala, is working with multiple non-profit organizations to distribute sanitization kits and masks to frontline workers and members of the community. The group has supported conversion of unused flats and other public infrastructure into fully equipped quarantine centers for home-bound migrant workers. It has sanitized various government and public places, supported community kitchens and distributed food and ration kits to vulnerable communities including migrant workers and to COVID health centers.